Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

1. Identify a training need within their agency and prepare an appropriate method of addressing the need.
2. Identify and explain methods of gathering performance data.
3. List and define the basic objectives of performance appraisal systems.
4. Identify and explain the elements of counseling.
5. Define the basic objectives of a field-training officer that should include productivity, efficiency, work quality, and motivation of employees.

This course is designed to meet requirements as mandated by the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions and to meet the annual in-service requirements.
