This course is designed to give useful information to the patrol officer, advocate and nurse for interacting with victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. Information will be provided on new trends emerging in the forensic field.

Various speakers will be utilized to present relevant information on a local level to those interacting with victims. The multidisciplinary team approach will be used for this training.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify the role of the prosecution.
2. Identify the role of the state's attorney.
3. Identify the role of law enforcement for the domestic violence victim.
4. Understand the special consideration of reporting for the sexual assault patient.

This course is designed to meet requirements as mandated by the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions and to meet the annual in-service requirements.

Class Size: Restricted size, seating is limited.

Attendance: You must attend the entire class to receive in-service credit.

Dress Code Policy for Training Sessions at the Academy

To ensure a professional appearance, all in-service officers and staff must adhere to the following dress code to gain admission to any training session at the Academy:

- Uniform of the Day: Recommended.
- Shirt: Must have a collar; no t-shirts or tank tops.
- Pants: Docker-style pants, BDUs, or suits; no shorts or jeans.
- Footwear: Closed-toe shoes with socks; no sandals.

Firearms Policy: Officers carrying a handgun on campus must also display their badge in plain view.

Non-Compliance: Attendees who do not follow the dress code will be denied entry to the classroom or range. A report will be submitted to the Chief/Sheriff/Warden/Director outlining the reasons for the denial.

Attendance: To receive in-service credit, you'll need to be present for the entire class.

Thank you for your cooperation in maintaining a professional environment.
